

BEYOND CAROUSEL

by BRENDAN RITCHIE

ABOUT THE BOOK

Nox, Taylor and Lizzy have just escaped a nightmare. After months of being trapped inside a shopping centre they are finally free. Free to roam the streets of Perth and free to solve the mystery of what happened outside the doors of Carousel.

But the city is not like it once was, and the dangers are far from over. Loots lurk in the empty streets and packs of dogs are never far behind. Saving those they love will mean risking everything – and time is running out.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Brendan Ritchie is a writer and filmmaker from Fremantle, WA. In 2015 he published his debut novel, Carousel, and was awarded a PhD in Creative Writing. In addition to writing, Brendan spends his time lecturing across range of creative disciplines.

PRAISE FOR CAROUSEL

‘This is a lively and imaginative novel about consumerism, youth, art, isolation, entrapment and survival, the sort of thing that might happen if Kafka wrote a script for Big Brother.’
Sydney Morning Herald

‘thought-provoking and addictive’ Magpies

‘Ritchie has written a unique, modern tale’ MC Reviews

‘A fascinating insight into the human heart and mind’ Lamont Books
