

CHICKENSAURUS

by JAMES FOLEY

ABOUT THE BOOK

Sally Tinker, the world's foremost inventor under the age of 12, is back with a new adventure in invention.

This time, Sally's archenemy Dexter Maelstrom invites her to a demonstration of his De-Evolving Ray, which turns chickens into dinosaurs! But when Dexter's chickensaurs break free and go on the hunt, there's no room for the lily-livered. Sally – along with her friend Charli and her baby brother Joe – will need all their pluck to avoid becoming chicken feed.

Is Dexter behind this fowl and poultry plot – or is somebody else the bad egg? Will Sally ever return the world to its rightful pecking order? Find out in the fourth instalment of the S.Tinker Inc series.
