No-one in the grey old town of Littlelight noticed at first.

A brick missing from here.

A brick missing from there.

But as more and more bricks disappeared, the Mayor suspected a thief.

And this made him very mad.

‘Good people of Littlelight,’ said the Mayor. ‘Someone is taking bricks from our walls – walls that protect us from everything that is different.

A dangerous thing to take.

I AM VERY MAD.’

On hearing this, the good people of Littlelight agreed.
'Yes, yes, he's right,' they said.
'A dangerous thing to take. We are all very mad!'

That year, bricks were taken from all around the town.
