

A Sausage Went for a Walk

by ELLISHA MAJID
and PETER KENDALL

ABOUT THE BOOK

Want to butter up your younger reader? More than 50,000 children have egged on Sausage as he scrambled away from the breakfast table. Find out why Sausage is so full of beans after 30 years spent avoiding poachers and cereal killers who'd like to get him into hot water. Three decades later, this exciting story is still so fresh it's straight from the cow.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Elisha Majid was born in Kuala Lumpur but lived for several years in England, the United States and Melbourne. She moved to Perth, where she taught at a high school. Elisha enjoys reading, yoga, good food and the outdoors.

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Peter Kendall is an artist who is active in many areas, from corporate and portrait commissions to paintings for exhibition, illustrating books, and cartooning.
