

THE DRAGON'S TREASURE

by MARK GREENWOOD

ABOUT THE BOOK

Join the History Hunter as he delves into an extraordinary story of shipwreck treasure, and investigates one of Australia's mysterious cold cases.

On a summer morning in 1931, four children on a remote beach made a remarkable discovery. But this was only one of many ancient finds in the same area: silver coins, hidden treasure, mysterious stone circles, strange objects and an unidentified skeleton. Why was it all there? Where had it come from? What did it point to? Can the truth be found? Join the History Hunter to unravel this marvelous mystery.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Mark Greenwood is a history hunter. He enjoys researching lost explorers and glittering treasure, delving into baffling mysteries and investigating famous cold cases. His award-winning books examining history and multicultural themes have been honoured internationally.

NOTES

- This book is a part of the History Hunter series for junior readers with four books scheduled to be released over two years.
- Perfect for schools, libraries and booksellers looking for exciting adventures that will appeal to those who can't resist an unsolved mystery and still dream of finding a cache of treasure.
- When Mark was a young boy holidaying near Geraldton in the 1960s, silver 'pieces of eight' were being found off the WA coast. An ancient ship was rumoured to be wrecked nearby. This book is inspired by that time.
- Mark's recent books include the chapter book series: History Mysteries, Moonwalkers, The Book of Stone, CBCA Honor book, The Happiness Box, Our Country – Ancient Wonders and Our Country – Where History Happened.
- Mark often teams with his wife, illustrator Frané Lessac, to produce books that promote an understanding of multicultural issues, such as Drummer Boy of John John, Magic Boomerang, Outback Adventure and Our Big Island. Their other books include Ned Kelly & The Green Sash, winner of the WA Young Readers' Book Award CBCA Honor Book, Simpson and His Donkey, and Midnight – the story of a light horse, and CBCA Notable Book.
