

FIND YOUR HOME WITH THE BOAB TREE

In The Boab Tree, Osprey and the many eagles, cockatoos and crows fly Boab back to his home in the desert country up north. Because Boab is home, he grows into one of the biggest boab trees around. What are some things that make you feel like you are home? What are some things that help you grow? Draw them in the spaces below

Which bird are you?

Crow Baby was born with two spirits – one crow and one human – and in the story of the same name she has to use both spirits to save her community. If you had special bird powers, what would they be? Which bird is most like your spirit? Is it the crow, like Crow Baby, or are you more like a cockatoo with a strong beak, a kookaburra with a loud laugh, an owl with night vision or a tiny bird like a wren or honeyeater who is lightning fast and good at hiding? Colour in Crow Baby while you're thinking, then draw the bird that's most like you. You may want to write down some words to describe your special bird powers, too!
